DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

WE, the veterans who served during the Vietnam War, who embraced through sacrifice and service to country the most fundamental and cherished bonds of our democracy, reaffirm that commitment to spirit and ideals, accepting it as the solemn responsibility of our survival, to bear the burden of what has been, so that tragedy once endured can never be forgotten.

AND so do we resolve that the true measure of our worth as citizens, as veterans, and as patriots be found in our willingness to draw from and abide by these strengths and convictions born of heritage and experience.

TO HOLD that a sacred and binding contract exists between governors and governed, with the latter recognizing an obligation of compulsory foreign or domestic service equitably shared by all, and the former morally obligated to implement foreign and domestic policies that are clear, consistent, and reflective of the will of the people.

TO HOLD further, that the contract extends to post obligatory service with the Nation, bound whenever and wherever appropriate to the prompt delivery of compensation to individuals or survivors in direct proportion to sacrifice and service rendered.

TO HONOR with dignity the sacred memory of the war dead, and so in dignity, ensure that the lasting legacy of the fallen is responsibility toward, not exploitation of, their sacrifice.

TO STAND for cooperation, dialogue, and friendship among the nations of the world community, with full respect and support of those principles central to our national life.

ARTICLE I

NATIONAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1 – OFFICES

- A The National headquarters of Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc., hereinafter called the Corporation, shall be located within the District of Columbia metropolitan area. The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of New York, as the Board of Directors, herein after called the national board, may determine, or as the affairs of the Corporation may require from time to time.
- B The Corporation shall have and continuously maintain in the State of New York, a registered office, and a registered agent whose office is identical with such registered office as required by the Not-For-Profit Corporation Law of the State of New York; and the address of such office may be changed from time to time by the national board.

SECTION 2 – PURPOSES

The purposes of the Corporation, its state councils, and its chapters are:

- D To study, on a non-partisan basis, proposed legislation, rules, or regulations introduced in any federal, state, or local legislative or administrative body which may affect the social, economic, educational, or physical welfare of the Vietnam-era veteran or others; and to develop public policy proposals designed to improve the quality of life of the Vietnam-era veteran and others, especially in the areas of employment, education, training, and health.
- E To conduct and publish research, on a non-partisan basis, pertaining to the relationship between Vietnam-era veterans and the American society, the Vietnam War experience, the role of the United States in securing peaceful co-existence for the world community, and other matters which affect the social, economic, educational, or physical welfare of the Vietnam-era veteran or others.

The national board shall have the right to set rules for waiver of dues in situations it deems appropriate. Members shall file, with the Corporation, a DD Form 214 or other proof of qualification for membership.
- B Honorary life membership. Upon the signed recommendation of a national officer, the conference of state council presidents, a state council, or a chapter, an individual not otherwise eligible for membership shall be eligible for honorary life membership with the approval of the national board. An honorary member shall be entitled to attend meetings and speak but shall not be entitled to make motions, vote, or hold office.
- C The national board shall have the authority to designate classes of members, and the dues, entitlements, eligibility requirements, and available services concerning such members, and shall have the authority to restrict from membership a person or group of persons when, in their judgment, admission of such person or persons would be inconsistent with, or detrimental to, the purposes, principles, objectives, or goals of the Corporation or otherwise.

SECTION 4 – NATIONAL BOARD

- A Except as otherwise provided by law or in this Constitution, control and management of the Corporation and its funds and affairs shall be vested in the national board.
- B The national board shall implement a “strategic plan for the future of the Corporation, the state councils, and the chapters” adopted by the delegates.
- C The number of the directors shall be twenty-four.
 - 1 The national board shall be composed of the four elected officers, ten at-large directors, nine regional directors, and the chair of the Conference of State Council Presidents.
 - a The chair of the Conference of State Council Presidents or designated Conference of State Council Presidents officer shall only be seated after satisfying the following requirements:
 - i Must have been a member of the Corporation, in good standing, for a continuous period of not less than the twelve months immediately prior to assuming their position.
 - ii Must have held an elected position at the national, state or chapter level, during any continuous twelve-month period prior to the date of assuming their board seat.
 - b At the national convention, the delegates shall elect by plurality, from among the nominees, the directors necessary to fill the directorships for terms of two years.
 - c All directors shall be members of the Corporation in good standing. The national board shall be formulated as follows:

- 2 Regional Directors - At the national convention, there shall be one director elected, from among the candidates for such position, from each of the nine regions, as set forth in Appendix I to this Constitution, for terms of two years by plurality vote of the delegates representing the chapters and state councils located within the respective regions of the candidates.
- a To qualify for election, a candidate must have been a member of the Corporation, in good standing, for a continuous period of not less than the twelve months immediately preceding the opening of the national convention at which candidate seeks election. The candidate must have held an elected position at the national, state, or chapter level, for any continuous period of twelve months prior to the date of the opening of the national convention. The candidate must reside in the region.
 - b The national board may, after review of the membership patterns of the Corporation and in consultation with the Conference of State Council Presidents, amend and modify the boundaries of the regions set forth by a two-thirds vote, provided however, that any such amendment must be adopted and effective at least one year prior to any national convention.
- 3 At-Large Directors - There shall be ten at-large directors, who shall be elected for terms of two years by a plurality of the delegates at the national conventions.
- a To qualify for election, a candidate must have been a member of the Corporation, in good standing, for a continuous period of not less than the twelve months immediately preceding the opening of the national convention at which candidate seeks election; or
 - b a candidate must have held an elected position at the national, state, or chapter level, for any continuous period of twelve months prior to the date of the opening of the national convention or the date of appointment.
 - c At-large candidates not elected shall be alternates, ranked by the number of votes received, and who shall fill, in turn, any vacancy occurring in the office of at-large director.
- D A vacancy on the national board shall arise on the death, resignation, inability, refusal of a director to serve, or a regional director no longer maintaining their physical residence in the region they were elected to represent. The unexcused absence of a director from attendance at two board meetings is deemed as a resignation from the national board. A vacancy among the at-large members of the national board shall be filled by an alternate at-large director. A vacancy in the position of a regional director shall be filled by the alternate regional director.
- E A quorum of the national board shall be two-thirds of the number of the directors then in office, or that number greater than two-thirds which is closest to two-thirds in the event that said number of directors holding office is not divisible by three. Except as otherwise provided herein, the affirmative vote of the majority of the national board present shall constitute the act of the national board.
- F The president of the Corporation shall establish, with the approval of the national board, regularly scheduled quarterly meeting dates of the national board. The national board shall meet at other times on the call of the president of the Corporation or on the request of a majority of its members.

- H In the intervals between meetings of the national board, the president of the Corporation may refer and submit by mail, telegram, telephone, or email, to the elected members of the national board, specific questions relating to the affairs or management of the Corporation, or elections to fill vacancies, which in the opinion of the president require immediate attention on the part of the national board. The results of such referenda shall constitute the act of said national board and shall be binding upon the Corporation, its officers, directors, agents, committees, and other persons and employees in the same manner as if the vote were taken at a duly constituted meeting. In the event the president submits a question to the national board, as set forth above, he or she shall, within seven days of said referendum, file with the secretary an affidavit setting forth the date of contact of the directors, the question submitted, and the vote of each director. The secretary shall communicate the results of said referendum to all members of the national board and to all state council presidents within seven days of the aforementioned filing with the secretary.
- I With respect to any resolution adopted by a state council and directed to the national board, the national board shall report back to that state council, in writing, setting forth the action taken by the national board at its next meeting, and the national board shall do so within thirty days of said meeting.
